

QUIZ

How do we know that the stars designated as “giants” are, in fact, larger in size than main sequence stars or dwarfs?

(What do we need to know or observe in order to ascertain into which “size” category a star fits?)