

Figure 6-18. Travel Times of Seismic Waves. The three types of waves produced by earthquakes travel at different speeds. P-waves move most rapidly through the earth while L-waves travel much more slowly. S-waves travel at an intermediate speed, which ranges between 3 and 7 kilometers per second.